

Uganda - Capacity Building in the Field of Energy within Local Government

Partner Institution	Ministry of Local Government (MoLG)
Purpose	Raise awareness and build capacity for promoting access to energy within local government and improve cooperation between administration at national and district level
Outputs	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Revised guidelines for development of district development plans with adequate coverage of energy access issues operational • Proposal for most suitable institutional arrangements for increased capacity in energy planning and related issues at district level agreed with MoLG and Ministry of Energy and Mineral Development (MEMD) • Modalities for collection of energy-related data at district level and exchange between district and national level agreed • Understanding of energy issues within district administration strengthened in 6 districts; methods and material for training programmes in other districts available
Activities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Review different options and develop recommendations for institutional arrangements for increased capacity in energy planning and related issues at district level • Update and test guidelines for the development of District Development Plans (DDP) in order to ensure an adequate consideration of energy issues • Develop and test modalities for collection of energy-related data at district level (incl. consumer mapping) and for data exchange between district and national level (e.g. integration into national database at Rural Energy Agency) • Develop and pilot training programmes on energy issues (e.g. principles of rural electrification planning) in 6 districts
Implementing Service Provider	ESD Africa (Kenya), Energy & Development Group (Uganda)
Period of Implementation	June 2007 – February 2008
Contact person	Lucius Mayer-Tasch (GTZ) Lucius.Mayer-Tasch@gtz.de Tel: +49 6196-79 1367